The Knoxville Register of the 25th inst., says -Our farmers are still in fine spirits in regard to their crops. There has never been a better general prospect in East Tennessee, than now. Wheat will be ready for barvesting in a few days.

The Register also says -We understand the Board of Mayor and Aldermen have secured the use of the 1st Presbyterian Church, for the session of the Southern Commercial Convention. It is a specious building, and will conveniently accommodate the delegates. The convention meets in August next.

BISHOP POLE, of the Diocese of Louisiana. is at present in Knozville. His visit to East Tenpersec is with a view of examining various localitice, suggested as suitable places for the location of the Southern University. We understand the Bishops of the Southern States, will meet on Lookout Mountain, on the 4th of July, to take into conside eration the location of this University .- Register,

BEN LOMOND .- We had the pleasure, a few days since, of visiting this charming place, in company with Bishops Otey and Polk, and a number or our citizens, both gentlemen and ladies. We can truly say that all were delighted with the glorious scenery. The ladies, (God bless them,) had prepared one of the best dinners we ever stood up to. A more eligible spot for the location of a great University, as we believe, cannot be found on the face of the habitable globe. It overlooks the town of McMinuville and the whole country for many miles around. It not only met the expectations of the two Reverend gentleman named, but went far bewond them. If health be desirable-THERE it is. If cool, never-failing, free-stone water be an object to be wished for-THERE it is. If superior stone for building purposes, and in the greatest abundance. nose ages any value-THERE it is. If fine soil, fine timber, and fine coal, (near at hand) are things to be sought-THERE they are. In a word, to use a trite expression, [if we must spread out our full sentiments,] it completely fills the bill. But we forbear. The Episcopal Convention will soon mest, and in that body we have every confidence .-

Mc Minnwille Era, June 25. We are pleased to note the lively interest manifested by our citizens in the meeting of the Bishops and Delegates, who are to assemble on Lookout Mountain the 4th of July. The objects of this meeting are known throughout the South, and the enterprize meets with the cordial approval of all. Our cirizens may well feel complimented that the first meeting of so great an enterprize was held in their midst, and we know the hospitalities of the city, and the citizens will be cheerfully tendered. The several committees of arrangements have been made, and we know every man will be at his postearly, cheerfully, and with all his heart, interested in the doings of the day. The bridges and toll gates leading to the mountain, will all be thrown open, and we hope to see a general rush of all our citi zens to the mountain on that occasion. We hear that large delegations will be present from Nashville, Buntaville, and from all the cities far and near. The presence of the Brass Band, we are sure, would add an attraction to the programme. What say the gentlemen connected with it?-a mere suggestion. Chat. Adv. 25th.

THE WHEAT CROF.-We learn that the wheat erop in this country will make an abundant yield, It is thought the amount raised in this county will exceed that of 1855 Many of the farmers have been harvesting the present week. In some portions the rust has appeared, but it has not so far, done material injury .- Murfreesboro Telegraph

The corn and cotton, notwithstanding the lateness of the season, now look very promising in this region. There is generally a good stand of both, and if the farmers are blessed with a few more seasonable rains, there will be an abundant vield. The crop of oats at this time looks quite promising. There will be an abundance raised - Ib

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times, gives the following reason for Majo, McCulloch's declining the Governorship of Utah : Major Ben McCulloch, who has been here for neveral days, was again strenuously urged by the President to undertake the Governorship. The Major, among other reasons for declining, suggested that he would in vitably suff r in public estimation if he should undertake to fulfil the duties of that position, for the reason that the people would expect tim to string up Brigham Young at once, and thrush his adherents soundly, gently pas imes for indulgence in which he was well satisfied the Mormons would give him no pretext when they found him backed by troops. If a peaceful policy was to be pursued-as he believed it must be necessarily-the Major thought it better that some man of whom the public have a less ferocious idea, and consequently less ferocious expectations, should be the the instrument of its initiation and development at a & Salt Lake. The President was unwilling to let him and off on this plea, and then the Major fired his reserve, informing the bachelor Executive that he couldn't go because he was intending to get married soon-a duty, the discharge of which he had the neglected for forty years or more, until his day of grace had nearly expired. This argument brought Mr. Buchanan down. He at once acknowledged its invincibility, and bowed his acquiescence.

A Fall in Sugar.

For the past month, high as sugar was before, it has continued to advance a quarter or half a cept a week, and is still rising. But there is reason to hope for a decline before next Christmas -The crops are promising. Production has been largely at mulated by the high prices of two years past. Consumption has somewhat diminished. - Stocks have increased, and the Louisiana crop, which will be in by October or November, will be four times greater than last year. The maple production has been enormous and if the experiments with the Chinese cane should result in not ing but syrup, the increase of saccharine matter will be large; -s that speculators who have bought for a rise will find that sugars must have a fall. Louisians, maple and Sorghum, with a restraint on consumption, will prove too strong a combination for them, -Mo. Republican.

MARRIAGE ON THE CASS .- Yesterday on the down train of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, Mr V. is. Savier, of Brownsville, was united in wedlock to Miss E. T. WESTBROOK, of Shelby county. The knot was tied by Rev. Athent Tuomas. The fair one, whose parents were opposed to her marrying so young, had informed per betrothed by letter. that she would be found at a certain point on the road, and true to her promise, she was there. The happy pair spent a tew hoors in the city yeaterday, and then departed for Brownsville, by way of Somerville .- Memphis Appeal 26th.

NASHVILLE:

MONDAY, JUNE 29, 1857.

The Kansas-Nebraska Resolutios in the last Legislature.

Soon after the last Legislature convened, (October 11) a resolution was introduced into the House of Representatives, by the democratic member from Henry county, Mr. TRAVIS, anconditionally approving the Kansas-Nebrasrecommended resolutions in lieu (Messrs, NEWMAN and GILBERT from the Committee. dissenting) The following are the Resolu-

That of Mr. Travis reads:

"Resolved by the General Assembly of Tennessee, That principles contained in the Nebraska and Kansas Bill, as passed by the Congress of the United States, meet our hearty approval, and our Senstors in Congress are hereby instructed, and our presentatives requested to use all honorable means in their power to prevent the repeal of the same, or the restoration of the Missouri Compro-

Those reported by Mr. Looney, on behalf of a majority of the Committee, read:

"Resolved by the General Assembly of Tennessee. That we acquiesce in and will abide by, thelegislation of Congress, c.mmonly known as the Kon sas and Nebraska Act, believing that the preservation of the Union, and the peace and barmony of the country demand it at our hands, but in doing so we deem it proper to declare as the sense of this General Assembly, that Congress possesses no power under the Constitution to legislate on the subject of slavery in any way, but if it does it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise it.

Resolved, That while we deny this power to Congerss, and the policy of its exercise, we declare in equally unequivocal terms that the people of the Territories have, in like manner, no power to legislate upon the subject of slavery, either to prohibit ts introduction or to provide for its admission, further than to protect it, like all other species of property, if found within their limits, but that upon formation of a State Constitution, and not until then, they have the power to admit or exclude this institution without any limitation or restric-

"Resolved, That we regard Squatter Sovereignty,' or in other words, that provision in the 'Kansas Nebraska Bill,' under which the right is claimed for the Territorial Legislature to impose upon said Perritories the odious and unjust principles of the "Wilmot Proviso" as a detestable heresy, and a species of radicalism not only inimical to the institutions of the South, but at war with the spirit of the governmet itself.

"Resolved, That so much of the 'Kunsas and Nebrasks Act' as permits foreigners, before they are naturalized, to erjoy in the Territories, the rights of citizens, either by the exercise of suffrage, or by the acquisition of a homestead upon the public domain, is unjust to our native bern population, unwise as a matter of policy, and in violation of the Constitution of the United States; against that part of said Act we enter our solemn protest."

The vote was in effect, as between these resolutions, the democracy supported and passed the former, the Americans voting against the former and for the latter slightly amended, -See House Journal, pages 89,

A few days ago the Union & American in refering to these resolutions, charged Col. HATTON with being opposed to the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska Bill, as a whole, Now, we submit if the resolutions supported by Col. Harron do not "acquiesce in" that act, so far as it declares a repeal of the Missonri Compromise, and the non-intervention of Congress on the subject of slavery in the territories; and protested only against the Squatter Sovereignty and Alien Suffrage heresies that had been infused into it. These doctrines, according to the construction put upon the power of territorial legislatures, at the North, were a part of that act. These have parties of the South. Upon the Squatter Sovebeen pronounced odious and monstrous by all reignty part, we showed from the debates in Congress (see our paper of May 16,) that Douglas and his black republican colleague, TRUMBULL, construed the Kansas Bill precisely alike upon this subject. That Alien Suffrage was an element in that Bill, we have the testimony of such democrats as BUTLER, of South Carolina, Brown, of Mississippi, and CLAY, of Alabama, (published in our paper of yesterday,) the last named going so far as to say that he felt "it due to himself to confess that "he doubted the correctness of his vote in "yielding to the action of the Houseof Representatives, by which the Clayton amendment to the Kansas-Nebraska bill was strick-"en out," While that bill was before the Senate, Mr. CLAYTON, of Delaware, offered an amendment confining the right of suffrage to citizens of the United States. The Senate agreed to it, and it was stricken out in the House, and it was his vote agreeing to this action of which Mr. CLAY doubted the correct-

These facts clearly show that Mr. HATTON did not, in the last Legislature, oppose the non-intervention principles of the Kansas act, nor the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. And the attempt to place bim in a false position before the people on this subject, is wholly at variance with that fairness, which, according to our judgment, ought always to prevail in political discussions.

Upon the same course of reasoning we might charge the entire democratic delegation in the last Legislature, with having voted for Squatter Sovereignty and Alien Suffrage, in opposing the resolutions reported by Mr. Looney, as given above. But we believe that there were comparatively few of that delegation who believed in the propriety of the doctrine; and although Gen. HARRIS has avowed that other most iniquitous doctrine of alien suffrage, we believe that the people will, with the mass of the southern democratic Senators in Congress, repudiate it in the most emphatic terms. It may be as well for us to say here, that we regard the articles of our neighbor of the Union and American, on this subject, as an attempt to change the course of the paramount discussions of the canvass, and to divert the public mind from the issues which he must feel are depressing him, his candidate and party. We cannot consent to let this be done; as we announced in the beginning, we shall stick to the issues ourselves, and we must not be expected to follow him in any of his by-path ramblings, or to engage in a guerrilla warfare upon imma-

Some of the penny-whistle, cross-roads leaders of the democracy, are trying to create the impression that the new revenue law of the last Legislature is an American measure. This is simply untrue. Members of both parties voted for and against it. The credit of the State demanded a change from the old system, and it was found that nothing could pass that would meet the crisis except this law, and for this reason it was enacted. After it had passed the Senate, Mr. Stokes, who had voted for it, wishing to get it before the Senate again with a view to defeat it, moved a reconsideration. But, three democrats, who had voted against the bill, joined the majority, and prevented a reconsideration. Those three the Missouri river, in the vicinity of De Soto, democrats are Ballew, Dean and Brown, If any persons are particularly responsible for the enactment of the law, and merit condem- at the rights of De Soto and her ferry privileges, nation therefor, they are the men. But we took a short cut scross the bend, forcing a channel do not censure them. Their vote has been town of Nebraska, some four or five miles from advantageous to the State, and whatever of the river, to the infinite discust of the lubabitants by the next Legislature.

The Union and American says Mr. Hatton, as a member of the last Legislature, voted for a resolution, which-

Denounced the Kansas bill, repealing the Missouri Compromise, as enacting a "detestable heresy, a species of fadicalism not only inimical to the institutions of the South, but at war with the spirit of the Government itself," "unwise as a matter of policy and in violation of the constitution of the United States."

The reader would infer from this that the resolution denounced the repeal of the Missouri Compromise as a "detestable heresy," ka bill. It was referred to the Committee on &c., but such is not the fact. The resolution Federal Relations. On the 30th January fol- only denounced what true Southern Rights lowing, Mr. Looney, from the Committee, re- men of all parties regard as a monstrous docported on the Resolution of Mr. TRAVIS, and | trine, worse even than Wilmot, provisoism. Here is the resolution. It speaks for itself.

Resolved, That we regard "SQUATTER SOVER-EIGNIY," or in other words, that provision in the Kansas-Nebraska bill, under which the right is claimed for the terrritorial legislature to impose upon said Territories the odious and unjust principles of the Wilmot proviso, as a detestable heresy. and a species of radiculism not only inimical to the institutions of the South, but at war with the spirit of the government itself."

Will the Union and American now undertake to say that the doctrine of "SQUATTER Sovereignty" is not a "detestable heresy" as declared by the resolution? Why, the Union and American itself has denounced "Squatter Sovereignty" as "incompatible with the Constitution,"-"a doctrince of all others most odious to the South." Mr. Calhoun also declared it the "most monstrous doctrine ever advanced by an American statesman," as worse than Wilmot Provisoism." Messrs. Cass, Douglas, Toucy, and other Northern leaders of the Democratic party, and even Gov. W. Jones, of Tennessee, have asserted that this doctrine was incorporated in the "Kansas bill." Why, in view of these facts, we ask, should not Mr. Hatton, and all truehearted Southern men denounce this feature

The Editor of the Union and American attempts to place himself in a position to strike down Bob Hatton for voting for the revenue bill of the last Legislature, by exensing his own vote for the portion of it creating the office of Assessor, on the ground that he did so to make the bill objectionable, and cause its defeat. Well, then, why did Donelson, of Sumner, vote for that portion of the bill? Did be have a similar reason? Tell us, neighbor. If he did not, your blows fall with as much vigor and effect upon him, as upon our Bob. Don't forget to answer us. It right before his constituents.

Memphis Municipal Elections.

We learn from our Memphis exchanges that, at the recent municipal election in that cirv, the whole American ticket was elected with one exception. The independent candidate for Wharf Master, A. H. Avery, Esq., of the Bulletin, was elected by a small majority, some thirty odd, over Mr. Wolfe, the American nominee. As the opposition ticket was a "majority" affair, got up to catch old line whigs and straggling Americans, the success of the American ticket speaks well for the enterprise and loyalty of the party. We shall look to Memphis for a handsome gain in

Harris and Hatton at Knoxville, We are favored with the following from a private letter received by a gentleman of this city. The writer is a very prominent and reiable gentleman:

KNOXVILLE, June 25th, 1857. Dear Col: You ask me to write you an account f the speaking between Hatton and Harris at this place on yesterday. In doing so, briefly, I regret cannot take the time necessary to give you a ummary in extenso of the cut and thrust, attack and defense, flight and pursuit of the whole buttle. As, per published list, Harris led the charge at this point. He made the same speech which he had stereotyped long ere he reached this point, and, apparently, with the same result. The crowd, which numbered between thre and four thousand, paid him the attention becoming the people of East Tennessee, who always like to see a "fair fight." His voice was good, and, while it reached the utmost/verge of the assembly, only served to sound his own falacies and the unsoundness of his party. I have rarely seen any person play on an astrument so well tuned to so little purpose. It had a good sounding-board, but as the music was written in democratic demagogue et foreign style, of course it had few "charms" for our East Tennessee boys, who love their homes and their native melodies. He occupied his time, and resumed his seat on the stand, without exciting a particle of visible enthusiasm in the bosoms of his few parti-

Hatton then arose, and the packing of the crowd lose around him, the perfect silence that seemed as if by magic to still the multitude, attested the profound interest with which he was listened to. Before he had concluded, so completely did he demolish his competitor, so triumphantly did be vindicate the principles of the American and Whig party, that the crowd, [I say the crowd for nineteentwenticths of the people constituting the same were Americans,) fully satisfied, exhibited in their smiling countenances, that all was as they had before anticipated. Harris had been heralded to us as a very Goliath, but he had evidently met his David Hatton's advocacy of the Pacific Railroad Policy, of American Suffrage, of the Land Distribution, in act, of everything that so distinguishes his glorious party from the democratic faction of the country, was overwhelmingly successful. All felt it. Their replies and rejoinders were to keeping with heir main speeches. No disturbance occurred to mar the discussion. With the bearing towards each other, gentlemanly and courteous, the crowd seemed to sympathize, and the discussion came to a close, leaving on the minds of the Americans, at least, that for ourselves, so far as we were concorned, we would do our whole duty. Our sight the touch of his hand and the sound of his voice-established between us a relationship which will only be ratified, according to law on the 4th of August next. We felt that he was already our Governor; yet the formality of a ballot in August, had to be gone through with before he occupied, in forms, that distinguished position.

We will give Hatton an increased majority in this district. Every thing is propitious. Maynard will beat Wallace for Congress between 1500 and 2,000 votes. A Lilliputian in the hands of a huge Brodignagian is Wallace in the hands of Maypard. The race is a farce. Wallace is blundering along under whip and spur, with his eyes shut, not yet through the first heat, while Mayoard has already won the race theirs over. It is a pitiable sight truly. Say to our friends in Middle Tennessee that we are "all right" here, and will "go abend" as certain as "blaz. s." We will sweep stakes, "Har(1)os A RUNAWAY RIVER -The Nebraskian of the 1 nat., describes a flagrant outrage upon "squaties sov. reignry" as having been lately perpetrated by Washington county, in that Territory. The ice gorged in the bend of the river, a few miles above that town, and the water, with a criminal disregard near Calhoun, lows, and making De Soto an inlend disadvantage has arisen can be corrected of that city. By this arrangement a few thousand acres of land will be added to the already extensive domains of Nebraska.

Watkins Nominated.

The Democratic Convention which met at Green ville, lest week, nominated Al ert G. Watkins as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 1st. District, and we understand he will accept the nomination. Andy Johnson has not been idle. We are told that he has succeeded in getting Maxwell off the track, but that Graham proves more intractable. Granam feels, and justly too, that he has been unjustly dealt with by his party. He has been reading from the stump letters from Johnson and others of the leaders in the District, virtually, if not directly, promising him the track in this canvass Graham thus far, in this contest, manifests much of spirit of the man-he feels that he has been uffed about by Andy Johnson long enough. Whether he will maintain his ground remains to be teen. It is generally believed, we understand, that Poor Watkins! for the first time in his life he is now sailing under his true colors. He has at length sppropriated to himsel; his legitimate badge. He has thrown himself, finally, into the arms of his fellows. It seems bard, however, that they should so soon have singled him out for the sacrifice-that he should be selected to lead the "forlorn hope" against TAYLOR. Probably they want to kill him off at once-most likely they do. Whatever plan the Democracy may adopt, we regard Taylon's election as beyond contingency. The Americans who supported Watkins two years ago under the misspprehension that he was "one of them," can now see and repair the injustice they did to TAYLOR .- Knoz-

Discussion at Medon. On Monday last, Mes rs Stephens and Avery pened the Congressional canvass at Medon, in dadison county. Mr Stephens fully satisfied the expectations of his friends. His adversary is not his equal as a debater. Mr. Avery, the Democratminee, repudiated alien suffrage, and advocated Governmental aid to the Pacific Railroad. What does all this mean? The candidate of the Alien Suffrage, Anti-Internal Improvement Democracy, nuncing the one and sustaining the other! Why the name of common sense, what is D-mocracy ! Where is Harris-Allen Suffrage Harris? When the S-g-Nicht candidates seem to be running, each one on his own book, we suggest that the most skillful police detecter, armed with a search warrant, would be nut to his wits to find the thing by which the Treasury Family swear-Democracy. It is as difficult to find as Captain Kid's treasures. It is like the joint snake. Strike it and it flies to pieces. Still, each dissevered part retains the semblance of a snake, though the head is in one place, nd the tail in another, and the fragments of the broken body is still others. We have every confidence that Mr. Stephens will know now to manage that particular part to whi h the Avery Democracy belong. - Mem. Eag. & Enq.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAPLEGAD .- We understand that at a late meeting of the Board of Direcors of this road, it was resolved to purchase, forthwith, the iron necessary to complete the remainder of the contract for seventy miles, entered into with Messrs. J. T. Grant & Co., which will extend the oud forty-two miles west of Marshall, in Texas. The twenty-eight miles from the Louisiana line to Marshall is to be completed so that the road, to that point, shall be ready for use by the commence- worth $6 co. ment of the coming year. Under the contract, the is important that Donelson should be placed | next forty-two miles will be graded, and ready to receive the rails by the first of January, 1859. Eighteen months, therefore, or thereabouts, will see this great work seventy miles on its way towards the Pacific, all ready for use and running through a most delightful section of country, rich own riff s. The premium will be awarded to the best shot. The Cops can be seen at Mr. Padoux's, Union street, in all the qualities necessary to constitute it one of he most productive agricultural regions in the Long before the work already under contract shall have been completed, arrangements, now in active progress, will be so far perfected as to exend it still further in its progress. Surveys have already been ordered, and are now making, over hree bundred miles more of the line, and it is expected that this will be finished by November next, nd all be in readiness to be put under contract. This will carry the work to the river Brazos; a great stride, indeed, and one that two or three ears, at most, should see accomplished, in the gigantic yet perfectly practicable march to the hores of the Pacific.

We have often dwelt on the great advantages that must enure not only to the stockholders, but to the country, from the completion of this noble tional enterprise; but we cannot too often urge em upon the con-ideration of our readers; and specially of those whose lot is cust in this Southwestern section of our Union. To attain them, an nlightened understanding of and taith in them. nd an en rgetic and unintermitting effort and deermination to secure them, are all that are now necessary; and t ese, from the appearances that every day is presenting, we feel confident will not be wanting .- N. Yesterday, we had an interview, in our office with W. C. Smedes, E-q., of Vicksburg, President of the Southern Central Railroad, connecting Vicksourg and Montgomery, and Dr. C. G. Young, President of the Streveport and Texas Railroad. These gentlemen have just returned from the North, where hey have been on busine-s connected with their Roads. For the Southern Central Road, Mr. Smedes. archased 2,000 tons of iron. Iron is now laid as far Brandon, and the additional supply will finish e Road twenty-two ml s further. Dr. Young archased the same quantity of iron for his Road shich will extend it also twenty-two miles further The distance to the west end, or Texas line, is 190 piles. At this end, contracts have been made for nstructing twenty-five miles of the Road. At he east end, twenty miles are finished. These Roads are but links in the great Pscific Railroad. Upon these two links, these gentlemen inform us, here are now employed some 2,000 hands .-Memphis Kagle and Enquirer.

New Method of Extinguishing Love. Twenty summers, a piercing eye, brown cks, a fine silken moustache, a faultless cravat are not these seductive? All these comined had an irresistable effect upon a suscepible young maiden, Marquitta de X. So long as our two lovers held this mute languagehis innocent, telegraphic, hieroglyphical comunication, which escapes all surveillance and enies all repression-every thing went well. ot love is insatiable; it sees little things, but is not content. So it was with our two overs. The young man was soon emboldened; Marquitta familiarized berself with peril. The doors of the upper stories were opened, the frightened tenants came rushing out armed with buckets and pitchers, and the water began to fall in torrents upon the defenceless head of our anfortunate, who dared neither move nor cry out. When the first panic subsided, they were astonished not to see any smoke; the neighbors gathered around, and looked, and laughed, and wondered, when the the father, with a smile upon his lips, said to his assistants, "Tranquilize yourselves, my riends; and thanks for your security; the fire was simply in the heart of this young gentle-
